Dan Olmstead and Scrappy

Scrappy is a two and one half year old Mini Australian Sheppard. She is a very high energy and loyal puppy. She came to us from an ad we saw in the Idaho Statesman newspaper. She was born in Vale, Oregon and when she was six weeks old, Janet and I flew our Cessna up to the Vale International airport to get introduced and fly her home. She slept on Janet's lap in a little carrier the whole one hour flight to Twin Falls. Scrappy was the first puppy the breeder had ever sold that was picked up in a Cessna.

Scrappy's favorite activity is chasing a frisbee, and her second favorite is barking at the neighbor's two cats. This drives Janet and me crazy, but the cats and neighbor just ignore her. Scrappy is a great addition to our family, and we look forward to many more years of "Scrappy".
